

DoDEA Student Educational Monitoring Plan for Absences
Alconbury Elementary School

This document is the student's unique Educational Plan to mitigate the impact of the student's pre-approved extended absence from school. The experiences, activities, or other assignments must be consistent with the course content objectives for each curricular area or course which the student participates in during the school day or week. A single plan should address all classes the student is currently taking. This plan is not required for students participating in school sponsored curricular or extracurricular activities, to include travel to/from such activities. A copy of this document is provided to the parent or sponsor and maintained by the classroom teacher along with the class or classroom grade book.
