

Harry the Hamster

Once upon a time a little girl named Penny had a little brown hamster named Harry. She loved her hamster so much.

One day Penny went to feed Harry, but she couldn't find him. She looked everywhere, but she could not find him. Penny was so sad.

Weeks passed, but she couldn't find him. Just when she was about to give up, she heard a little squeak coming from under the bed. She went to look at what it was. It was Harry with another girl hamster and a lot of little hamsters. Harry had babies and a lot of them. Penny was so happy that she found Harry and now she had six more. She had to start getting names for all them. There were two boys and four girls. One boy was Jack and the other was Tyler. The four girls were Andrea, Laura, Anna, and Lucy. The older hamster was Leanna.

Penny went right to her mom to show her. Her mom was very happy too. They would have to go get some more things to make sure there was everything they needed to take care of 7 more hamsters.

Tomorrow they are going to go to the pet store to get everything. Penny went to bed and she slept very well because she was excited to go to the pet store and she just wanted to get the night over with. When Penny woke up she got dressed so fast you would not believe your eyes. Penny ran downstairs and asked when they were going to go to the pet store. She said, "As soon as we have eaten breakfast we can go."

They went and got a bigger cage, more food, treats, toys, and a little tube that they can go up and down in. When they got home they put all of the hamsters in the new cage and put the tube in. Leanna loved the tube the most. Harry loved the new treats and all the babies loved the toys the best.

Every night Penny would get up and make sure the hamsters were ok. They always were, but Penny just wanted to make sure.

The next day Penny went to show her best friend Lauren. Lauren asked if she could come over and see all the new babies.

Penny said her mom and Lauren's mom could plan a play date.

Six hours later, Penny's mom called Lauren's mom to plan a play date. Lauren's mom sure she can we would love that.

Tonight Penny watched Winnie the Pooh. Penny was just five so she still liked that stuff. She had an older brother Jeffrey that was ten, so Penny was the baby.

Today was Penny's play date with Lauren. When Lauren came over they went to Chuck E. Cheese! When they got there they saw their friend Jace. Jace was their best friend, too. The three girls played till they were so tired they couldn't walk.

Tomorrow is Jeffrey's birthday. He will be 11. He is so excited.

At 4:00 pm I went shopping with my mom for my brother. I got him a soccer ball because he loves soccer.

Tonight Penny played with her hamsters. She had them play with a little ball that was pink and purple. After Penny had dinner and put on her pajamas she went upstairs with her mom and wrapped Jeffrey's gift. Then Penny went to bed.

When Penny woke up she took a shower and got dressed for Jeffrey's birthday. Jeffrey's birthday is at the bowling ally.

When they got to the bowling ally Penny put Jeffrey's gift on the table with all the other gifts. When Jeffrey started opening the gifts he opened Penny's first. When he saw the ball he was very happy.

"Thank you so much," said Jeffrey.

"You're welcome!"

The End