

Jared's Life

Once upon a time there was a boy named Jared. He lived in Frankfurt, New Jersey. He had a dog named Spot. He and Spot went together everywhere, even to a different country.

One day Jared and Spot got lost out in the forest and couldn't find a way out. He tried to run but every direction he went there were tigers and lions. Jared thought they were going to attack them. But instead they just wanted to be friends with Jared and Spot.

The lions brought Jared and Spot to their cave. Jared didn't know what to say. He thought it was a miracle but it wasn't. Jared said he must be dreaming or something like that. He was dreaming.

When he woke up he said, "I'm glad that's over." When he went down stairs his mother asked what had happened. He ignored her and sat down at the table and ate breakfast.

After he had breakfast he went to school. His teacher's name was Ms. Williams. She was a nice teacher. Well, that's what Jared thought. During math the bell rang and everyone ran outside.

Chapter 2: Recess

When everybody went outside they waited for the bully to come and beat someone up. But today he didn't beat anyone up. Everyone didn't know what to do so they kept waiting. I asked, "What's wrong." He didn't answer for a few seconds but then he turned around and said that his dog named Skull had died.

I went over to my best friend named Tommy and told him everything that had just happened. Even Tommy was surprised. The bell rang and everyone ran inside. After school was over Tommy and I went home together. He came over to my house and we got on the computer. We tried to look up Skull and we found something weird. It said that he lives on Kyle-crescent Street, and that's where the bully lives. It also said that he is still living there this very minute.

We went to the bully's house and asked if we could come in. He told us "Maybe later." We tried to tell him but he kept saying, "NO!" So we just went home, and both of us agreed we should try later.

About three hours later we went back over to the bully's house and we tried again. He finally said, "Yes," and we looked all over. We found a dog and his collar said Skull. We were shocked and we almost fainted.

We went downstairs and Skull followed us. We found the bully hiding in the closet and we said to him, "You said Skull was dead when he's right next to us." He blushed and ran out of the house.

Chapter 3: The Chase

We started running after him and we noticed he had a pixie stick in his hand and left a trail of pixie dust. The pixie dust led into the forbidden forest and it ended there too. We thought he had gone in and would never come back, but just then we looked to the right. We saw another trail of pixie dust and knew he went that way.

We kept running and running, but then we saw him go through a dark alley. We took a shortcut that led to the other side of the alley. We went there and he was right there by us. We took him by the shirt and both of us said, "Finally."

The bully said, "Ahhh, man."

They took the bully to Jared's house. They asked him a few questions and knew he was lying about everything. But they were so tired so they just said, "You're free." Before they knew it, it was 8:00. That meant Tommy had to leave. So then Jared's mom told him to turn off the lights and go to bed.

The next morning he woke up at four in the morning and went outside and saw Tommy chasing down the bully on a motor scooter. And the bully was riding a normal scooter and Tommy skidded across the sidewalk and hit the back of the bully's scooter. The bully fell off and Tommy grabbed his arms and dragged him over to his house.

Before he went in, I caught up with him. I said, "What was all that about?"

Tommy replied saying, "He tried to get loose. Good thing I saw him out the window." Then we went to his house and the bully came with us. We kept asking him questions but he wouldn't tell the truth. So we tied him up and put handcuffs on him then we left him there for a day.
